What is the Silent Auction?

When you arrive, you will see tables set up in the Great Hall. There will be three separate areas (Area 1, 2, and 3) and each area will "close" at different times (see times above). EACH item on these tables will have an auction sheet with it (corresponding to those in this book). It will tell you about the item (who donated it and specifics about the item), how many people it is for (dinners for example), the minimum bid and the minimum incremental bid. Carefully review each item that you bid on as there are lots of things that are similar and we may have some last minute items.

Start the bidding by writing your name and "paddle" number on the sheet for the specific item. Your "paddle" number is assigned when you check in as you come in the front door of Heritage. EVERYONE NEEDS A PADDLE NUMBER TO BID, so be sure and see John Sandman before you place any bids. Keep an eye on the bidding as the evening proceeds. Others will try to outbid you, so you may have to bid multiple times to keep in the running! As the evening goes on, the bidding will get pretty hectic. A warning bell will be rung and the tables ready to close will be announced at least two times before a table closes so listen for that bell! On the following pages an item marked as "Live" is designated for the Live Auction. "Silent" will be for items in the Silent Auction. Remember to have fun visiting with everyone!

General Rules Governing the Auction (just in case!)

- All sales are final. No exchanges/refunds are permitted. Everything is sold "as is". Please read the offering sheets carefully (especially since some have associated dates) and ask if you have a question.
- Incremental bids (amount specified on each auction sheet) must be met in order for bid to be valid.
- All items must be paid for Saturday April 10, 2010. CASH and CHECKS are the only forms we are able to accept so please plan accordingly.
- By his or her purchase(s), the buyer waives any claims of liability against either Heritage Universalist Unitarian Church or the donor(s) that may result from the use of property or services sold.
- All auctioned goods or services must be used WITHIN ONE YEAR (before April 10, 2011) or they will be forfeited.
- Unless specified, dates and times are to be arranged at the mutual convenience of the donor and buyer.
- Although we ask the seller to contact the buyer, it is the buyer's responsibility to contact the seller to collect the goods or services.
- The Auction Committee may withdraw any item that does not receive a sufficient minimum bid and/or present the item at the live auction to raise the bid.
- In the event of a dispute, the Auction Committee will have sole and final discretion to determine the winning bidder.

Individualized help for responding more effectively to the difficult person in your life. More information from Tamara (please feel free to modify): My sister once said: "God didn't make that many difficult people, but he spread them around pretty evenly." Most of us are in relationship with at least one person we find difficult. If you are in this spot, Tamara can help. When working as a counselor in Employee Assistance with the Health Alliance, Tamara was considered a "content expert" in the areas of managing conflict, defusing an angry person, and coping with difficult people. Tamara will meet with you to share best ideas and strategies that can be immediately applied to your challenging situation. Time to be arranged by mutual agreement (approximately 60 - 90 minutes depending on what best fits.)
